Kiribati Green Energy Solution, a State-Owned Enterprise was established on 14 November 1984 under the Company Ordinance Cap 10A. It is a leading Government implementing agency in the energy sector deal with any renewable energy initiatives in Kiribati.

The resulting Kiribati Integrated Energy Roadmap (KIER) highlights key challenges and presents solutions to make Kiribati's entire energy sector cleaner and more cost effective. As a small, remote island state, Kiribati is highly dependent on imported energy supply.

Renewable energy has the potential to transform the energy landscape in Africa, providing access to electricity for millions of people while also addressing climate change. However, the sector faces several challenges, including the dominance of large-scale private investments from foreign companies that prioritize their own profits over the ...

Kiribati's energy story highlights both the successes and pitfalls of off-grid solar projects in the South Pacific, a region that includes some of the world's poorest countries. On one hand, energy experts say such initiatives have brought power to thousands of remote villages despite enormous geographic and logistical obstacles.
