If you find a technician that holds certifications and licenses, it's a good sign. Finding solar RV installers who attended The National RV Training Academy is even better. They offer a 35-hour course specific to all things solar. A technician with experience and the certifications and licenses to back it up is worth every penny.

How often should I get my solar panels cleaned? At SolarReviews, we recommend getting your solar panels cleaned at least once every two years. Solar panel cleaning should cost around $15 per panel or $300 for a 20-panel system. The energy payback on this spend should be well and truly worth it as output can decay 10-20% if your panels are dirty.

This is a review for a solar installation business in Yuma, AZ: "We have been dealing with Starlight in Yuma, AZ. for about 14 years and have nothing but PRAISE for the way Debbie and Larry Crutcher dealt with us on every level. 8 years ago Larry put in 4 120 watt solar (tiltable) panels for maximum solar power and controller on our rig.
