Are 'upselling scams' causing a surge in solar panel fraud?

However, homeowners making the most of the Government's solar panel drive have increasingly fallen victim to conmen. Citizens Advice has warned of a surge in solar panel fraud, particularly "upselling scams" in which cold-callers convince customers to upgrade technology they already have to meet fabricated legal "standards".

Are solar panels a scam?

But as solar panels have flown off the shelves, the industry has developed a dark underbelly in which scammers and cowboy installers take eco-friendly households for a ride. The Financial Ombudsman Service received more complaints mentioning solar panels in 2022 than in the previous eight years combined, Telegraph analysis reveals.

The Financial Ombudsman Service received more complaints mentioning solar panels in 2022 than in the previous eight years combined, Telegraph analysis reveals. Complaint numbers have sky-rocketed from a low of 15 in 2018, to a record high of 853 last year.

Do solar companies ask for big cash payments?

Some firms ask for big cash payments up front for solar panels that never arrive. In April, renewable energy firm Daylight Energy went bust, owing customers over £1m in deposits, all of which was unsecured. While some customers have managed to recoup their money, many have not.

What if my company offers solar energy?

If your company offers solar energy, remember that claims must not only be truthful, but also comply with established consumer protection laws, including the FTC Act and the FTC's new Impersonation Rule. Be truthful. Every clean energy company has a responsibility to be honest and upfront with consumers. Be transparent about what you're offering.

Are people deceived by solar financing companies?

We don't want people deceived, though," says Adam Welle, a lawyer with the Minnesota Attorney General's Office who is pursuing a case against solar financing companies. Beyond the industry's reputation, real people - many of them already financially vulnerable - have been hurt.

Be aware of solar energy scams - everything from scammers pretending to be affiliated with the government or utility company to businesses misrepresenting the cost of improvements, savings, and financing options.
