A start-up that helps rural Bangladeshi owners of home solar power systems trade their surplus electricity with their neighbours won an international award for climate change innovation Thursday.

By 2041, Bangladesh plans to produce 40% of its electricity from clean sources and import 9,000 MW of renewable energy from neighboring countries. This offers solar manufacturers a prime opportunity to showcase innovations and expand their market at the Solar Bangladesh Int'l Expo, the Oldest & Biggest Expo of its kind.
